

Current affairs Quiz - 9th May 2024

written by iasexam.com | 09/05/2024

1. What is the causative agent behind the recent headlines about West Nile fever?

- Bacteria
- Virus
- Protozoa
- Fungus

2. On which date do we commemorate 'World Red Cross and Red Crescent Day'?

- 7 May
- 8 May
- 9 May
- 10 May

3. The Pyrenees Mountains, recently making headlines, act as a natural dividing line between which two nations?

- Germany & Switzerland

- Norway & Sweden
- Hungary & Romania
- Spain & France

4. 'Leber congenital amaurosis', recently highlighted in the news, refers to which medical condition?

- A neurological disorder
- A rare genetic eye disorder
- A type of skin condition
- A cardiovascular disease

5. Glyptothorax punyabratai, recently featured in news stories, belongs to which animal group?

- Spider
- Catfish
- Frog
- Snake

Submit