

Daily Static Quiz - 26th November 2022

written by iasexam.com | 26/11/2022

1. The straits nearest to the International Date Line is:

- ☐ Straits of Malacca
- ☐ Bering Strait
- ☐ Strait of Hormuz
- ☐ Strait of Papua New Guinea

2. What is Point Nemo, which was recently seen in the news?

- ☐ It is an Arctic space observatory.
- ☐ It is a launchpad used by most global space agencies.
- ☐ It is the location in the ocean that is farthest from land.
- ☐ It is the orbital center of the International Space Station (ISS).

3. The term “pole fleeing force” relates to the

- ☐ Forces responsible for the bulging at the earth's poles
- ☐ Magnetic force as emitted through the poles aligning landforms on earth
- ☐ Outward directed forces associated with the spinning of Earth
- ☐ Forces that causes oscillations in the tilted axis of the earth

4. Consider the following statements. The Ross Sea is:

1. A deep bay of the Southern Ocean in Antarctica
2. Free of ice for most of the year
3. Dominated by movements of cold counter-equatorial currents

Select the correct answer using the codes below.

- ☐ 1 only
- ☐ 2 and 3 only
- ☐ 1 and 2 only
- ☐ 1 and 3 only

5. The Bering Sea is a marginal sea of the:

- ☐ Arctic Ocean
- ☐ North Sea
- ☐ Pacific Ocean
- ☐ Beaufort Sea

Submit